He was one of the 3 consultants (as the African Tax Audit Expert) that developed an audit training module for the African Tax Administration Forum (ATAF) (in Pretoria, South Africa), an activity that was financed by the Germany's GIZ in 2012.

As a key manager for statistics in the department, he was exposed to the challenges of dealing with data compilation, capture, analysis, and subsequent use of the data and information. He is also recognised for his attention to detail, and definition of data standards. He was part of the team as a representative of Domestic Taxes Department (DTD) that put together the data standards manual for Uganda Revenue Authority.

He holds a Bachelor's degree in Statistics of Makerere University, and a Post Graduate Diploma in Income Tax Administration of Uganda Management Institute. He is currently in the final stages of completing a Master of Arts Degree in Economic Policy and Planning. He is a member of the Uganda Statistical Society (USS).
